A PHYSICIAN'S LETTER.

"GENTLEMEN:—I am glad to write you my opinion of 'Ivorine Soap,' and have long intended doing so.

It has become a household necessity with us.

If there is an unusually obstinate spot on the clothing, on the woodwork, an ink dash on my desk cover; a polish required for the dentiphone or surgical instruments, a cleansing and harmless preparation for the teeth, and a very superior toilet soap needed, we resort to 'Ivorine.'

We buy it by the box, remove the wrappers, and allow the soap to thoroughly ripen.

Now, if I had saved fifteen wrappers I would ask you to send my little girl a drawing book in accordance with your offer in the Youth's Companion; but as it is, we all feel under obligation to you for manufacturing 'Ivorine Soap' for us.

We do not hesitate to recommend it unqualifiedly to all our friends. It is one of the few articles that will do what it is advertised to do."

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory'," they ARE NOT, for like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING

87 3/10 PER CENT.

From Monday, Nov. 14, to Saturday, Nov. 19, by actual count, out of every one hundred persons who entered THE BELL'S doors more than EIGHTY-SEVEN bought and paid for the goods they inquired after. Just think of it! Only THIRTEEN out of every hundred left without purchasing, and every intelligent merchant will tell you that the average of lookers, shoppers, and callers not ready to buy at once is nearly FIFTY in a hundred. THE BELL'S experience of last week with more than EIGHTY-SEVEN satisfied and delighted purchasers out of every hundred callers is something without a parallel in the clothing trade. Does it need any comment of ours, or can you

Read the Lesson for Yourselves?

What does this say for THE BELL'S goods and THE BELL'S prices? Some may think it is the magnetism of polite and persuasive salesmen. No; it is the

Oratory of High Qualities

—AND THE—

Eloquence of Low Prices.

A Thanksgiving Sermon.

The citizens of Chicago, as well as THE BELL Clothiers, have both today cause for thanksgiving, to which, perhaps, no reference will be made at the usual Thanksgiving services, but which is none the less a fit subject for self-gratulation. The public may give thanks that an establishment has taken root amongst them which brings really excellent Clothing for Men and Boys within easy reach of the slenderest purses, and THE BELL that the public has so quickly found out and has been so quick to take advantage of the extraordinary facilities it offers—its high-grade garments and its low-grade figures. Upon this day none should fail to recall the blessings they enjoy, and THE BELL deems it proper in a purely disinterested spirit to call attention to some of them.

By the way, that Overcoat sale began Monday is still on. A Ten Dollar Bill, or $15, or $18, or $20 never were able to buy so good an Overcoat as THE BELL offers this week in this

THE CENTURY to New Subscribers.

We are receiving back numbers of THE CENTURY for the past year which are out of print (one of them is the issue containing), in order to make a special offer to new readers of the numbers containing the first chapters of the Lincoln History, by Messrs. Nicolay and Hay, private secretaries to the President. The great work, which the Boston Beacon calls "the most important publication of our day," has brought thousands of new readers to THE CENTURY. During the past twelve months the authors have described the early part of Mr. Lincoln's life, his environment, political conflicts, etc.—a knowledge of which facts are essential to a complete understanding of Mr. Lincoln's character. The historians now enter upon a more important and personal part of their work, covering the years of Mr. Lincoln's occupancy of the White House, when they were his constant companions.

THE NOVEMBER CENTURY Which begins the new volume, contains the story of the inauguration, and equally personal and important chapters will immediately follow.

In the Midsummer CENTURY and four chapters of novels by Edward Eggleston and George W. Cable, with the first of Mr. George Kennan's papers preliminary to the opening of his series on "Siberia and the Exile System." (10 cts. extra). "The Last Appeal of the Roman Aristocracy" and the Duke Incident"
